

Dr. Leonard Tan

Dr. Leonard Tan is Assistant Professor of Music at the National Institute of Education-Nanyang Technological University, Principal Conductor of the Singapore National Youth Orchestra, and Music Director of the Philharmonic Winds (Singapore). He earned his doctorate from the Indiana University Jacobs School of Music, where he studied orchestral conducting with David Efron and Arthur Fagen. He has also participated in masterclasses with Leif Segerstam and Alexander Polischuk, where he worked with the St Petersburg Chamber Philharmonic, and with Johannes Schlaefli, where he worked with Academic Orchestra Zurich.

Dr. Tan has adjudicated in festivals in the United States and Asia, and served as guest faculty in conducting at the University of Hawaii. His passion for new music has seen him conduct Singapore Symphony Orchestra musicians in a Singapore-Japan Composers Exchange Concert, and numerous new works by Singaporean composers.
