

JEREMY CHIEW

A recipient of the Patricia Sherman Award, violist Jeremy Chiew graduated with a Masters in Viola Performance from the Longy School of Music of Bard College, under the tutelage of Dimitri Murrath.

Jeremy's concerto appearances include The Chamber Players and Emmanuel Symphony Orchestra. He freelances often with the Macao Orchestra, re: sound Collective, The Philharmonic Orchestra (TPO), Singapore Lyric Opera (SLO) and maintains a small private teaching studio alongside coaching the string ensembles of Raffles Institution and National Junior College.

Jeremy is increasingly involved in concert management and production, and curates an annual event centred on the Viola, aimed at increasing local awareness of this lesser-known member of the string family.
